Course Choice Information – English - Higher

Course Information & Content

The main purpose of this course is to provide candidates with the opportunity to develop the skills of reading, writing, talking and listening in order to understand and use language which is very detailed in content. The course offers candidates opportunities to develop and extend a wide range of skills. The literacy and communication skills you learn through the study of English are key in practically all professions.

Pupils will be encouraged to reflect on, and to build an understanding of, their own experiences, environment, and culture, and the experiences, environments and cultures of others. Through the study of Scottish writers, candidates will develop an appreciation of Scotland's own literary heritage. Language and literature are key aspects of our culture, and the cultures of others, and through them can be fostered an awareness, and a celebration of cultural diversity.
