

The key role of homework is to raise attainment for all ages and stages and across all levels of ability. The benefits of homework, the good routines and habits of an effective independent learner will continue to be implemented across the school. As young people progress from the Broad General Education (BGE) to the Senior Phase, homework will reflect the breadth, depth, balance and time spent in different areas of the Curriculum. Homework will provide wide and varied opportunities to match the needs of all. Please see the link below for information on the Broad General Education. Crieff High School – Homework 2023-24

The key role of homework is to raise attainment for all ages and stages and across all levels of ability. The benefits of homework, the good routines and habits of an effective independent learner will continue to be implemented across the school. As young people progress from the Broad General Education (BGE) into the Senior Phase, homework will reflect the breadth, depth, balance and time spent in different areas of the Curriculum. Homework will provide wide and varied opportunities to match the needs of all.

In the Senior Phase where there is no formal homework set, young people should aim to spend time each week consolidating their learning in their learning. Clear guidance and specific detail on tasks will be given on Paper / Teams to young people to support homework completion throughout the Senior Phase. Please see the link below for information on the Senior Phase and National Qualifications. Senior phase | Curriculum in Scotland | Parentzone Scotland | Education Scotland
